

OVER 100 CONCERTS

AT AMERICAN MILITARY BASES

IN JUST SEVEN YEARS

The Spirit of America Tour was started after 9/11 to get headline entertainers to volunteer to give morale building concerts to America's Armed Forces at our stateside Military Bases. Since then the Tour has played to hugely appreciative audiences throughout the United States and Alaska.

This phenomenal success can only be attributed to the fabulous stars who have offered to give shows to the Military. Major stars such as Charlie Daniels, Clint Black, Patty Loveless, Dierks Bentley, Howie Mandel, Pam Tillis, Dennis Miller, Neal McCoy and Aaron Tippin have all volunteered to appear in support of our Armed Forces. The stars donate their time and the tour pays all of their expenses.

The Spirit of America Tour makes sure that the total Military Family is included when it goes to a base. This includes all Military personnel: active duty, reserves, National Guard, retirees and civilian base employees along with their families and children. All are made welcome and no one is ever charged an admission fee to see shows from the Spirit of America Tour.

The Tour is privately funded by the Robert and Nina Rosenthal Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization based in Los Angeles, California. Robert Rosenthal, a retired attorney, created the Tour after 9/11 because he wanted to do something for America. The Military was his choice because they are the unsung heroes of our defense without whom we would have no guarantee of our many freedoms.
